January 2015

Dear Co-worker:

Long time PIM associate David Wakuri tells an interesting story about a young man from Lumi in the West Sepik Province (also called Sandaun) who was convicted of a crime and jailed in the Boram Wewak prison. While the man was serving his sentence Eric Schering preached at the prison and gave him a copy of With All My Heart as well as to the other prisoners. Reading the book later, he was convicted and turned his heart to the Lord. After serving his sentence he then became an eager spokesman promoting the book.

He returned to Lumi and talked to his pastor Silas also living in the West Sepik Province. His Pastor looked at the book and was impressed. The man also energetically told others in his church about the book.

Pastor Silas began thinking about how WAMH might be a valuable resource if made available to the pastors of an upcoming regional pastors' conference. The conference was held the last week of October in Wewak, the largest city in the region. Then PIM folk in Ambunti received a request for the books and gave the green light to grant the books. A couple hundred cartons (28 per carton) of the Melanesian version of With All My Heart were distributed at the conference. Each pastor was delighted to receive two cartons for his church. I'm confident that with the dearth of Christian literature in PNG the pastors were delighted along with others who attended the conference and mentioned how pleased they were with PIM for providing this much needed reading material.

We mentioned in earlier newsletters the similar enthusiasm Catherine Tani had regarding With All My Heart. She has been active not only in the Wewak region for distribution in government schools but also in Lae of Morobe Province.

With this kind of demand existing for WAMH OMK Ministries, Inc. plans

Catherine Tani of Wewak has distributed thousands of With All My Heart to students, prisoners, government schools, and pastors.

another printing of 10,000 copies of the English addition for 2015. If the Lord blesses you in a special way in 2015 we urge you to consider giving toward this project. Assuming around two and a half dollars per copy, OMI needs about $25,000 for both printing and freight charges to PNG.

In His grace,

Orneal Kooyers
